

TRI-WEEKLY ELY RECORD.

SUNDAY.....SEPT. 1, 1872
A. D. JONES.....EDITOR

AGENCIES.
San Francisco—MYRON ANGEL, 432 Montgomery St.—Room No. 11.
Star District, Utah—J. A. SCHMIDT & CO.
Hamilton—T. STARR, Russell's Bookstore.
WM. GETTING, News Dealer in Goodrich's saloon, is our Agent in Bullionville, and is authorized to receive subscriptions for the Record and receipt for the same.
Virginia City—JAS. McDONALD.
Eureka—W. LOWMY & CO.

SENATORIAL ASPIRANTS.

The San Francisco Chronicle, referring to the withdrawing of Sharon from the contest, mentions John P. Jones, James W. Nye, F. A. Tristle and ex-Governor Blaisdell as Republican aspirants; Thomas H. Williams, Judge Garber and Harry I. Thornton as Democratic aspirants.

The Eureka Sentinel corrects the Chronicle by saying that "Col. Thornton, we understand, has declared himself out of the fight, and there is no doubt that Judge Garber is wholly ineligible." The Sentinel then mentions Major W. W. McCoy and Judge A. M. Hillhouse of Lander county, John C. Fall of Humboldt county, and Col. A. C. Ellis, Hon. H. K. Mitchell and Gen. T. H. Williams from the western counties; also W. B. Thornburg and Thomas Sunderland of Virginia City. [We have no desire to see any of these gentlemen peremptorily withdraw, and as to Judge Garber's ineligibility, more anon.]

The Sentinel refers in terms of high commendation to Major McCoy, and from an acquaintance running through many years with that gentleman, we are sure that the Sentinel has not placed too high an estimate upon his worth. Of the other Democratic aspirants we have not sufficient personal knowledge to justify us in advancing an opinion at this time, though each has his friends and all are well qualified for the high station to which a laudible ambition points. It is more than probable that, seeing the importance of the political action of Lincoln county in the coming election, some of these aspirants will pay Pioche a visit, when the people will be better able to judge of their merits.

Among the Republican aspirants the most prominent names mentioned are those of John P. Jones and James W. Nye. Jones stands so high in general estimation among men of all parties, and has so firm a hold upon the Republican party in this State, that Nye's friend despair of defeating him in any other way than by bringing into the field some one less objectionable than the present Senator from this State. A Republican majority in the next Legislature will secure the election of Jones without any reasonable doubt.

MILITARY HEROES.

The assumption of many people that military renown will carry a man into the Presidential chair is untenable. Washington's election was as much owing to the purity of his private character and the scarcity of men long in civil official position as to his achievements in the field. From Washington's second election, in 1792, no military hero was named for the Presidency till 1824—32 years—when Gen. Jackson was brought forward, but he failed of an election. Jackson, it is true, was elected 1828 and re-elected in 1832, but his success was due in a greater degree to his political record than to his military achievements, brilliant as they were. The election of 1836 followed, and Van Buren, who had no military fame above a private in the New York militia, defeated the hero of Tippecanoe for the Presidency. Harrison's election in 1840 cannot be credited to his military renown, but rather to the financial condition of the country just preceding the contest of that year. In 1844 both the candidates for President—Polk and Clay—were civilians. In 1848, Gen. Taylor, the hero who led our armies to victory in Mexico, was chosen President, but it cannot be fairly claimed that his military record—which was about all he had to recommend him—secured his election, for the loss of New York would have frustrated his hopes, and that State Taylor only carried through the defection in the Democratic ranks, caused by the Free-soil movement and the nomination of Van Buren at Buffalo. In 1852 the greatest military hero of the age, who had carried the American arms in triumph from Lundy's Lane to the Halls of the Montezumas, suffered an overwhelming defeat by one of his subordinate officers, who had achieved no more than other officers with similar commands. In 1856 and '60 military renown was not introduced in the canvass. In 1864 Lincoln was re-elected, notwithstanding the fame of McClellan as the "Young Napoleon." In 1868 Grant won in the Presidential race, and John Doe or Richard Roe could have done the same thing in the condition of the popular mind at that time.

Military renown, we repeat, has never, of itself, elected a President of the United States, and never will do it. Other considerations are, and always will be, taken into account in the choice of a President. While we have no disposition to disparage Gen. Grant's military record, we do say that his friends are not wise if they expect to re-elect him by reference alone to his services in the tented field.

PIOCHE DAILY RECORD.

Steam Power Press on the Way.

It having become necessary to issue the Record daily, in order to meet the requirements of a growing and promising mining town like Pioche, we have purchased a Taylor drum cylinder steam press from the house of Faulkner & Son, San Francisco, which is now on the way from Chicago. This piece of machinery will weigh about six tons. An addition to this office will at once be built, and ere another month has passed our own whistle will be ready to join in chorus with that numerous throng that daily salute our ears and give evidence that the argenteiferous rock is being brought from the depths of the mountains that surround us. It will be their mission to bring to the light; ours to make known to the world. It shall be the aim of the Record to advance every interest of this remote section, but if unsupported we will assuredly fail, for we are well aware that a bold stroke is being made by us. But we will not fail. The world fail we utterly ignore in the present instance. If our citizens fully appreciate the advantages to accrue from publishing a daily paper in Pioche, they, as well ourselves, will at once enter upon a career of prosperity hitherto unknown to this section; otherwise the reverse may to a certain extent prevail. Pioche is second only to Virginia City in her bullion product and should be second to none in prosperity. In the latter she is somewhat deficient; but her wrongs can be righted if the proper course is only pursued.

OUR CHURCHES—THE LADIES.

There are rarely found in mining towns, settled no longer than ours, better church accommodations, and rare opportunity of hearing the gospel preached in a more interesting and instructive manner to the old as well as young. It is my pleasure to be acquainted with the members of both churches and we believe them to be men who seek to promote the best interests of our city, but they are powerless unless they have the co-operation of our best people, and especially the ladies. An intelligent observer of any new settlement must admit that nothing does as much to prevent crime and disorder incident to mining and other like settlements as the preaching of the word of God and established churches. It is equally true, that woman in her influence sustains a similar relation to a community, and whenever a man is brought within the sphere of her influence, if she is a true woman, he is made better. Go where you may, and no purer, better women can be found than the ladies of our city—who are to-day sharing the trials of their husbands and sustaining them in their efforts to secure a competence. Admitting these facts, how important it is, that these two recognized mediums of good should unite in making our fast growing town a model in all its social relations. Example is often stronger than precept and I would urge every lady in Pioche to sustain the pastors of the churches by their presence at church on Sunday. An increased attendance on their part, a like increase of the gentleman will follow, and our community will surely profit thereby.
